(ISSUE TO STUDENTS)

1. Admission to Examinations

Subject to any exceptions approved by the Academic Council, no student shall normally be admitted to attend and complete the prescribed programmes of study and duly performed the work of the programme.

A student who does not submit his Examination Entry form to the Registrar through the Head of Department examinations;

2 Before the Examination

The following shall be ensured before the examinations.

Students shall be responsible for noting correctly the times and places of their examinations. No special time, if such failure is due to their mistake or inadvertence and not to illness or other serious and unavoidable circumstances.

Students should be at the examination room at least 15 minutes before the start of the examination to allow for registration.

All unauthorised personal effects to be left in front of the classroom at the Chief Invigilator/Invigilator's desk.

Programmable calculators should not be allowed unless authorised. If the use of pocket calculators is permitted, they must be silent.

3. Conduct of Examination

Candidates shall produce their identity and examination cards at any time if required to do so by an invigilator.

Except in an emergency, a candidate may not leave the examination room until half an hour after the examination has ended.

A candidate who arrives at an examination room half an hour after the examination has begun shall be refused admission. If another candidate for the same examination has already left the room the late-comer shall not be admitted.

A candidate who is admitted to an examination after the official starting time thereof shall not be granted extra time.

No book or paper of any kind may be taken into the examination room unless it has been duly authorised. No mobile phones or other electronic devices may be introduced into the examination room by any means whatsoever;

A non-exhaustive list of materials not allowed in the examination room is as follows: pencil case, celluler paper, etc. These materials may be retained by the University until no longer required.

Answers to questions must be written legibly in ink, except when there are other instructions;

No answer book or supplementary sheet may be taken out of the examination room. A candidate in possession of such materials shall be disqualified.

Neither food nor drink is allowed in the examination;
